

'Sunshu' Nashi

Early season - Great flavour - Subtropical

A subtropical nashi fruit tree that features a narrow, upright growth habit. Highly productive within two-to-three years after planting. Ideally suited to subtropical climates. Ideal for cooking and preserves.

Skin: Pale green with noticeable brown lenticels.

Flesh: Cream. Juicy, crisp. Moderate firmness.

Flavour: Very good. Sweet.

Culture: Deciduous. Water regularly until established. Vigorous.

Pollination: Partially self-fertile.

Size: 6 x 4 metres.

Care: For more information on planting, maintenance, and care visit flemings.com.au

'Sunshu'

Nashi

For online education and more visit
flemings.com.au   