

Grumichama

Highly ornamental - Multiple crops per year

Grumichama is native to Brazil. This compact, frost hardy shrub is highly ornamental and would make a great screen. The delicious 'berry-like' fruit can crop 2-3 times per year under ideal conditions. The skin is pleasant to eat, and high in antioxidants.

Skin: Black.

Flesh: Cream, almost translucent, seeds.

Flavour: Sweet - Between guava and grape.

Culture: Frost hardy, Full sun position.

Pollination: Self-pollinating.

Size: 6 x 4 metres.

Care: For more information on planting, maintenance, and care visit flemings.com.au

For online education and more visit

flemings.com.au   